CARRICKMACROSS has a bad reputation among the vagrants of Ireland. The poor guardians there are severe in their treatment of tramps. Every applicant for lodg-ing is compelled to take a thorough bath, and in the morning to break stone three hours before breakfast. Besides this the hair of every able-bodied tramp is cut close. The latter practice has caused critical com-ment, and will probably be discontinued.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

The President and His Party.

[From the St. Louis Republican.] The disaster in which the President and his party go down together in irremedia-ble wreck brings up the question: Who is to blame for it? It is a question for the defeated alone: it is nobody clse's business. It is clear enough to an outsider that both are to blame - the President for A CAR-LOAD of wild animals passed over the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road not long since, destined for some Eastern mart. The cargo consisted of cougars, American lions, horned toads, etc., all captured in Texas.

An almost unknown section of Newfoundland has been explored by Alexander Murray, the Provincial geologist, who declares that the tract is covered with much more likely to witness a general much more likely to witness a quarrel than a partnership. Those organs that clearly foresaw the impending disaster, but without being able to do any thing to avert it, now spitefully point to the President as the cause of it. They deno mee Pack-ard and Casey and the Louisiana policy; they speak freely of the fast-horse and wa tering-place flippancy which carried the Executive away from his duties and left the Government in the hands of Attorney-General Williams and the department clerks; and they east bitter reproaches on the personal selfi-hness which added the
